Present Employment

Self-Employed Consultant. My areas of emphasis include the assessment and treatment of stress-related conditions, including the treatment of clinically severe anxiety disorders; as well as forensic consultation to the courts with respect to (a) psychological consequences of motor vehicle accidents, sexual assault/harassment, physical assault, as well as other trauma, (b) psychological diagnosis, (c) mental competence, and (d) family court matters.

Adjunct Appointments

Clinical Professor, Department of Psychiatry, University of British Columbia. I train psychiatric residents, psychology interns, and psychology graduate students in behavioural assessment and therapy, serve on dissertation committees, and conduct a small research program (1985-present).

Adjunct Professor, Department of Psychology, Simon Fraser University. I have taught the doctoral course, special topics in civil forensic psychological assessment, in their forensic clinical psychology program, and occasionally serve on dissertation committees.

Past Employment

Director, Health Psychology Clinic and subsequently Anxiety Disorders Clinic, UBC Hospital. Administrative and clinical responsibility for outpatient clinics that treat 150-250 patients with anxiety disorders each year. Supervision of registered psychologists, psychology interns, psychiatric residents, post-doctoral fellows, and psychology practicum students. (1984-2005).

Director, Psychology Residency Training, Vancouver Coastal Health Authority. Administrative responsibility for an American Psychological Association Accredited Psychology Residency program (1988-2005).

Consulting Psychologist Forensic Psychiatric Services, Box 500 Lougheed Highway, Port Coquitlam, B.C. Assessed psychiatric remands regarding diagnostic, neuropsychological, fitness to stand trial, and diminished responsibility issues. Provided individual psychotherapy to patients adjudicated as not guilty by reason of insanity. (1983 - 1988)

Consultantships

Grant Reviewer, British Columbia Health Care Research Foundation, and Medical Research Council of Canada.

Ad Hoc Reviewer, Behaviour Research and Therapy, Behavior Therapy, Cognitive and Behavioral Practice, Journal of Abnormal Psychology, Journal of Consulting and Clinical Psychology, Cognitive Therapy and Research, Canadian Journal of Behavioural Science, Canadian Psychology, Assessment.

Harassment Consultant, College of Dental Surgeons of British Columbia – I have advised review panels investigating charges of sexual harassment against dentists about the prevalence of harassment and characteristics of complainants and perpetrators.

Private Consultations in Personal Injury

I have been retained by both plaintiff and defense counsel to provide consultations in personal injury cases regarding disability, relationship of the disability to a specified cause, and prognosis with respect to psychological conditions secondary to motor vehicle accidents, other accidents, physical and sexual assault, and sexual harassment. My qualifications have been accepted in the British Columbia Supreme Court and by the Worker's Compensation Board review panel. I have treated numerous victims of motor vehicle accidents with respect to posttraumatic stress disorder, driving fears and depressive conditions. I have reviewed case files and provided quality reviews of psychiatric as well as psychological reports for legal counsel and insurance adjusters. I have also devised treatment programs to be adapted and carried out by other therapists.

Private Consultations in Custody, Access, and Divorce

I have been hired by the Ministry of Social Services and Housing as well as privately to provide assessments with respect to custody and access, child protection matters, parenting capacity, and with respect to the psychological functioning of adults in divorce proceedings. My qualifications have been accepted in both Provincial and Supreme Court. In response to a request from the Ministry of Social Services and Housing, I have reviewed and offered a written opinion on relevant published material concerning the psychological impact on children of adoption and disrupted custody. I have also been retained by the College of Psychologists of British Columbia to review the adequacy of other psychologists' custody and access assessments., and have served as a practice supervisor for practicing psychologists who have been ordered by the College to have supervision during their provision of such assessments.

Private Consultations in Ethics Cases

I have been qualified as an expert witness in the area of ethics in therapy, and have testified in a College of Psychologists of British Columbia disciplinary hearing about such issues. I have also testified in front of the Committee to Investigate Physician Sexual Misconduct with respect to risk factors for sexual misconduct by psychotherapists. I have also been retained by the College of Dental Surgeons to advise their disciplinary panels on matters of patient and employee harassment.

Private Consultations in Criminal Proceedings

I have been hired by both defense and crown in murder cases to provide professional opinions on fitness to stand trial, diminished responsibility, and the adequacy of other psychologists' testimony. My qualifications have been accepted in Provincial and Supreme Courts of British Columbia.

Private Consultations in Immigration Proceedings

I have been hired to provide opinions on general mental health and likelihood for future criminality of individuals in immigration disputes.

Present Research Activities

1. Analysis of symptomatic change during CBT treatment for Generalized Anxiety Disorder (with M. Haring and S. Newth)
2. Domestic violence victims' appraisals of future risk: The impact of trauma symptoms on the accuracy of risk appraisals and safety planning. (with T. Nicholls and R. Kropp)
3. Replication of the Posttraumatic Cognitions Inventory in a Motor Vehicle Accident Sample (w. M. O'Neil)
4. Validation of the Accident Fear Questionnaire in a litigating motor vehicle accident sample (with M. O'Neill).
5. Comparison of self-rated and third person rated symptoms of psychological distress among personal injury litigants. (w. K. Walker & K. Douglas)
6. Comparison of posttraumatic stress disorder and generalized anxiety disorder patients with respect to worry, intolerance of uncertainty, and thought control strategies. (W. K. Burr)
7. Psychological characteristics of female victims of sexual assault during gynaecological examination (w. M. Haring)

Research Grants

1. British Columbia Ministry of Health. Prevention of rehospitalization of at-risk psychiatric patients. (1991-95). $155,060/yr. P. D. McLean, W.J. Livesley, & W.J. Koch.

Public Information

I regularly provide interviews for print (both national newspapers as well as local daily and community newspapers), radio (CBC and other local radio stations) and television (all local television stations) media with respect to newsworthy issues related to my professional interests and knowledge.

Continuing Education

Since 1981, I have updated my professional education by reading and publishing in various areas of psychological inquiry. I have presented papers and workshops in my areas of special expertise in Canada, the United States, and Great Britain. I have served on a number of dissertation committees thus broadening my knowledge of issues outside my specific specialty. I regularly teach a graduate course in my area of specialty and so update my knowledge of this area on a frequent basis. I have also attended workshops and conferences given by international and local experts across diverse topics: including the assessment and treatment of posttraumatic stress disorder, obsessive compulsive disorder, panic disorder, social phobia, pathological jealousy, domestic violence; sports psychology, psychometric assessment, custody and access assessment and mediation, as well as professional and ethical issues.
